

Spirit-filled discipleship with men to know God through biblically following Jesus!

These words above describe what LOGOS Leaders Outreach endeavors to do daily. Darin has many opportunities throughout the day to apply each word in a very wide variety of discipleship apmts:

“Spirit-filled” speaks to the need for Holy Spirit guidance and empowering, especially as it relates to evangelism, the first part of someone’s discipleship process (people have to hear the Gospel and believe in Jesus so that we can make disciples of them as shown in Romans 10!). Darin’s had to trust in the Spirit’s power as he preached the Gospel to an unsaved man who likes him a lot but has told D to stop trying to convert others to Christianity. 2 Corinthians 5:10-11 shows fearing God and not men.

“discipleship with men” indicates the involvement that Christians should have with other believers. It seems from Matthew 28:18-20 and 2 Timothy 2:2 that each Christian should have some people in our lives that we’ve begun discipling so that they can soon start making disciples themselves of more men.

“to know God” reveals the goal of knowing our Savior as life’s primary objective (Philippians 3:10 and John 17:3). A new man in discipleship just taught Darin how the Psalms show him Jesus’ presence.

“through biblically” means that everything we do to follow Jesus Christ has to come from the Bible. In discipleship times with guys, Darin promotes a purity and repentance of sin that carnal Christians want to avoid. We can’t limit following Jesus to trying to look loving by overlooking truth men need to know.

“following Jesus” guides every day’s decisions and interactions. In discipleship it has led to Philippians 2:3-5 getting used to show our need to die to ourselves in serving those around us, especially spouses.

Let’s all pursue Spirit-filled discipleship with men to know God through biblically following Jesus!

During the year everyone receiving this gets prayed for still by name at least once for each letter, so please request prayers about anything going on or others you know with needs whenever you’d like to have something special offered.
